				Description	Remodeling basement. Framing new rooms in all will be drywalled, running new electrical for basement, upgrading and relocating panel from 100a to 200a, having one 48x48 sliding egress window installed. I don't know what you mean for light and vent. I will be putting can lights in, probably a couple ceiling fans one for each bedroom, will be putting in a vent in the bathroom, will have some new duct work done by a contractor. Plumbing will mostly remain the same. Will most likely have to reroute some water lines for a new shower and sink. Drains are all existing and not moving or changing. Furnace and water heater not moving.
